RE: Hiring Manager, Digital Advertising Sales

Dear Bryan,

Now that we have completed the hiring of our Manager of Digital Advertising Sales, I wanted to thank you for the excellent service that you and Cosmos Sports provided to D.C. United and me.

Our initial approach was to handle the hiring process ourselves by posting the position on numerous websites and through industry word-of-mouth. This proved much less successful than anticipated.

That's when I had the good fortune of being contacted by one of your associates. After a few conversations with him and you, I was comfortable that Cosmos Sports could help us generate more qualified candidates than what we were doing.

As a result of engaging Cosmos Sports in the hiring process, we had the opportunity to interview many qualified candidates; most of whom we felt could successfully handle the position. We ultimately hired one of them and he'll be starting with us later this month.

Thanks for all your efforts and your guidance through this process. I will recommend Cosmos Sports services to other Major League Soccer teams and sport organizations.

Sincerely,

David Cope
